Will Evans's
writings should find a special niche in the small but significant body
of literature
from and about traders to the Navajos. Evans
was the proprietor of the Shiprock

Acces PDF 2000

Dodge Durango

Trading Company.

Probably more than most of his fellow traders, he had a strong interest in Navajo culture. The effort he made to record and share what he learned certainly was unusual. He published in the

Dodge Durango

Farmington and

New Mexico

newspapers and other

periodicals,

compiling many

of his pieces

into a book manuscript. His subjects were

Navajos he knew

and traded with,

their stories of

historic events

Acces PDF 2000

Dodge Durango

such as the Long

Walk, and

descriptions of their culture as he, an outsider

without academic

training,

understood it.

Evans's writings

were colored by his fondness

for, uncommon

access to, and

friendships with

Acces PDF 2000

Dodge Durango

Vent Diagram and by

Manual
who he was: a

trader, folk

artist, and

Mormon. He

accurately

portrayed the operations of a

trading post and

knew both the

material and

artistic value

of Navajo

crafts. His art

Acces PDF 2000

Dodge Durango

Vent Diagram

Manual
was mainly inspired by Navajo

sandpainting. He appropriated
and, no doubt,
sometimes
misappropriated
that sacred art
to paint
surfaces and objects of all kinds. As a Mormon, he had

Acces PDF 2000

Dodge Durango

particular views

of who the

Navajos were and what they believed and was

representative

of a large class

of often-

overlooked

traders. Much of the Navajo trade

in the Four

Corners region

and farther west

Acces PDF 2000

Mormons. They had a significant historical role

as

between Native

and European American peoples
in this part of the West. Well connected at the world, Evans was a good
