Ira Progoff's purpose in creating the Intensive Journal workshops on which this book is based was to give others a language and a process for reflecting on and deepening the meaning of their lives. We have many tools handed to us in At a Journal Workshop—each with a specific shape and function, and each with a full set of instructions on its use. This is a strange, wonderful and complex approach for journey/journal-ing, using methods the author has taught and evolved over the last 40 years.

The Journal to the Self® workshop is a 12-hour course on how to keep a journal for personal growth, creative expression and life enrichment. It was created in 1985 by Kathleen Adams LPC, PTR, Director of the Center for Journal Therapy, Inc., and internationally known pioneer and expert in the power of writing to heal. The early years of the workshop formed the research base for Kathleen Adams' best-selling book, Journal to the Self, published by Warner Books in 1990 (since acquired by ...

~~About the Journal to the Self® Workshop — The Center for ...~~

The journal workbook is intended to enable any person to access their own "seed-potential" for living the fullest life possible. Though his writing is without religious dogma, there is a spiritual tone to Progoff's method and he cites theological, literary and artistic sources to illustrate many of his journal procedures.
