Time for more back to school hallway decorations, bulletin boards, and themes! Each grade level adopts a "theme" for the hallway. This isn't necessarily how we theme our own classrooms, just a way for us to start the year as a team and design brag tags for our grade levels. Once we decide on a theme, our sweet grade level parents come up the week before school and decorate the halls.

Art bulletin boards are the first on my back to school preparation list I tackle at the end of the year. Yes, at the end! As I stated last year, I like to fully enjoy my Summer vacation and that means getting my art room ready for back to school in June.. And while I usually figure out my elementary art bulletin boards in late April, that didn't happen this year.
