Blood Trade is newest book, and it's my opinion that the books just get better the longer Ms. Hunter writes them. If you are new to this series: Jane Yellowrock's world is well-fleshed out, with great characters you can relate to and either love, or love to hate. Ms. Hunter does a good job of balancing the supernatural with the modern day world of humans, and imagining what sort of conflicts may take place.

Thoughts* Blood Trade, the sixth book in the Jane

Yellowrock series, mostly takes place in Natchez,

Mississippi where the master of the city, Hieronymus, is having problems with

over from Death's Rival. The Naturaleza's are causing major problems for the residents of the city and asks Jane for help through

Reach.
