Carlos Castaneda was an American author. Starting with The Teachings of Don Juan in 1968, Castaneda wrote a series of books that describe his training in shamanism, particularly with a group whose lineage descended from the Toltecs. The books, narrated in the first person, relate his experiences under the tutelage of a man that Castaneda claimed was a Yaqui "Man of Knowledge" named don Juan Matus. His 12 books have sold more than 28 million copies in 17 languages. They have been found to be fict

The title was " Carlos Castaneda, Academic Opportunism and the Psychedelic Sixties." He says Castaneda's first four books made him as famous as Margaret Mead, which is a shame. Carlos went into seclusion in 1973, which he could afford to do with all that money he had made. He stayed in seclusion for the rest of his life.
