The 14 chapters
compare and

aspects of the
phenomena of Minoanisation
and Mycenaeanisa
tion, both of which share the basic underlying

defining feature
of material
culture change
in communities
around the Aegean. This
change was driven by trends
manifesting
themselves in the dominant
palatial
communities of each period of

the Bronze Age.

Over the past decade, our understanding of how these processes developed and functioned has changed considerably.

Whereas current discussions on Minoanisation have already more recent theoretical

trends,
especially in
material culture
studies and

aiming at an
