Written in lovely lyrical prose, Let the Tornado Come is a book about despair and joy, about fear and triumph. After one of the most horrible childhoods imaginable - both physically and emotionally - Rita struggles with immobilizing panic attacks, but with the help of her horse, Claret, and the kindness and patience of others, she learns to trust in herself and slowly overcome her anxieties.

Let the Tornado Come: A Memoir by Rita Zoey Chin

Let the Tornado Come is a riveting and courageous memoir about the determination of a child runaway to create the life she wants, the unexpected challenges she must face as adult living that life, and the fearful but huge-hearted horse who teaches her that the greatest freedom lies not in running from, but turning towards, those things that frighten us the most.
