Making connections is a critical reading comprehension strategy that helps students make meaning of what they are reading.

When students make connections to the texts that they are reading, it helps them to make sense of what they read, retain the information better, and engage more with the text itself. Students can make connections between:

When children make connections between a book and their own lives, they feel empathy for the characters and become invested in the story. They have an easier time remembering the story when they feel a personal connection. Later, kids begin to make connections between books they've read. Eventually they'll be making connections to the world.
