The Firm is a 1991 legal thriller by American writer John Grisham. It was his second book and the first which gained wide popularity; in 1993, after selling 1.5 million copies, it was made into a namesake film starring Tom Cruise, Gene Hackman and Jeanne Tripplehorn. Grisham's first novel, A Time to Kill, came into prominence afterwards due to this novel's success.

The day after Grisham completed A Time to Kill, he began work on another novel, the story of a hotshot young attorney lured to an apparently perfect law firm that was not what it appeared. When he sold the film rights to The Firm to Paramount Pictures for $600,000, Grisham suddenly became a hot property among publishers, and book rights were bought by Doubleday.

When a novel is so great that from the first few pages you find yourself gripped, that's a superb book. The Firm is in that category. It is a heart-pounding, on-the-edge-of-your-seat thrill ride packed with twists, turns, and chilling suspense. A five-star page-turner, which in truth, is very hard to put down.
