future, which limits the options available to you, or you can choose to have FAITH which opens up unlimited options.

Through the media. Be it television, newspaper or the Internet we can be bombarded with fear from a morning to night, so much so that we become accustomed to it and take it as the norm. If you are looking for examples of faith then you have to search for it, seek it out.

Making the Right Choice In this book, I would like to restore some of that faith that may have been taken from you throughout the years. I will share stories of how both faith and fear are equally powerful and need to be treated as so. FEAR can bring sickness, depression, heartache. FAITH can bring healing, good fortune, mental clarity. When you take responsibility that the power of choice is within you and not in the circumstances that affect your life, then with that comes an within bliss. As

Faith No Fear
You stand in faith, it allows Gods love to flow into your life, creating stronger family bonds, peace of mind, healing, often off incurable diseases. I welcome you today to make a choice of faith and learn to leave fear behind. Where you once seen a dead end, you will now see crossroads. I leave the choice to join me up to you. Have a great day.

“ I have had the chance to meet Melissa and hear her amazing story in person. In this book, Melissa shares insight on how she became a warrior and fought back to become the champion she is today. She is a great example of perseverance in the face of what appears to be insurmountable hurdles. Her love of country is strong and carries through her joining the military and representing Team USA in the Paralympic Games. A true champion in many ways. ” —Jackie Joyner Kersee

“Melissa’s story of strength and courage is not only incredibly moving, it is a must-read for anyone facing any challenge. Clearly her passion for country and sport drives every one of her accomplishments. From a young gymnast like I was, to representing the United States in Paratriathlon, Melissa inspires us all with her story of overcoming unimaginable adversity and what it truly means to be unstoppable.” —Shannon Miller

Melissa Stockwell has been a restless force of nature from the time she was a little girl speeding around her neighborhood on her bike, to her tumbles and spills as a high-level gymnast and Olympic hopeful, to joining the ROTC in college as an outlet for her patriotism and love of America. After 9/11, she was deployed to Iraq as a commissioned Army officer, where she suffered the injury that would change her life forever. After a long and challenging recovery at Walter Reed Hospital, she exercised her power of choice to channel her energy into competition, winning three Paratriathlon World Championships and medaling at the 2016 Rio Paralympics. Her journey weaves service to her country and the heartache of a painful divorce along with founding a successful nonprofit, launching a career in prosthetics, finding new love, and becoming a mother to two children. Along the way, she meets all the living American presidents and inspires others with disabilities—through a story that is riveting, moving, and an inspiration for anyone who would choose to live their life to the fullest.

A Study Guide and a Teacher ' s Manual Gospel Principles was written both as a personal study guide and as a teacher ' s manual. As you study it, seeking the Spirit of the Lord, you can grow in your understanding and testimony of God the Father, Jesus Christ and His Atonement, and the Restoration of the gospel. You can find answers to life ' s questions, gain an assurance of your purpose and self-worth, and face personal and family challenges with faith.

Through fascinating biblical reference and commentary, Bokela Bonyoma explores the significance of choice--both divine and human--as it relates to the application of godly principles. The God-given gift of free will requires disciples of Christ to be faithful and thoughtful in their decisions. These decisions determine whether you will have authority over the temptations of our society, or whether our society will trample you underfoot. Bokela Bonyoma offers answers to difficult questions such as: [Is God just a divine dictator? [What hinders us from acting Christ-like? [Why does God choose the weak and despised among us?

The power of choice is the strength that comes from the depths of the heart. It is never wrong, and the result of the action must always be accepted. Whether positive or negative, the result should always be seen as a teaching, in the end the good and the bad case leads to learning. The Power of Choice is subtle, you must learn to listen to your intuition accompanied by the energy of the heart, if you choose what you most want to do, you are on the path of Love, if you do not enter a path full of obstacles because you so wished, never

In this world, success is often measured by the wealth and prestige that one acquires. So anyone who does not possess these things is considered a failure. However, for Belu Mabandla, her financial stability and her social status do not matter at all if she cannot ȳ sow the seeds that benefit others. ȳ With this in mind, she wrote The Power of Choice, a journal about her personal journey as a successful mother and career woman who was able to weather the storms of her life through her undying trust in God. The book also tells about the experiences of other people that
